Dirty Little Girl

Burn Halo

Oh yeah
Dirty little girl don't care about her reputation
She goes hard, moves fast and she's never gonna turn around
She's a party on her own and you never need an invitation
So come on in cause she's never gonna turn you downShe's a drug that I need
Tell me why should I leave?
She's no angel but she's saving meHey, she'll give it up for free
Yeah, she's only out to please
She don't love me but I don't seem to mind
Wait, I'll take another ride before I have to say goodbye
Yeah, its a crazy world but I'm in love with a dirty little girlWaking up alone now its time to feed my addiction
Don't ask, don't tell, don't wanna know where you been Called her up, called her over for a little bit of satisfaction
Do her once, do her twice, now you know I wanna do her againShe's a drug that I need
Tell me why should I leave?
She's no angel but she's saving meHey, she'll give it up for free
Yeah, she's only out to please
She don't love me but I don't seem to mind
Wait, I'll take another ride before I have to say goodbye
Yeah, its a crazy world but I'm in love with a dirty little girlA dirty little girl
Never have to find
Gets me every timeHey, she'll give it up for free
Yeah, she's only out to please
She don't love me but I don't seem to mind (Dirty little girl!)
Wait, I'll take another ride before I have to say goodbye
Yeah, its a crazy world but I'm in love with a dirty little girl
