When the Link Becomes Missing

Control Denied

A tool to do good has gone bad
Electric altar for a new religionA new way to link
A new way to think
Individual thoughts
That have come missingLaugh at my words, you fool
They will soon become living truth
Look at yourself in the mirror
Reflection is living proofWhat will they do
When the link they live becomes missing?
Will they survive?
When the link they breathe becomes missingWhen we see the face of evil
It will be the demon realityA new way to link
A new way to think
Individual thoughts
That have come missingLaugh at my words, you fool
They will soon become living truth
Look at yourself in the mirror
Reflection is living proofWhat will they do
When the link they live becomes missing?
Will they survive?
