

Silence

Allison Crowe

SilenceIn the darkness of your soul
Following your callGrey skies
Belong to me
Open my eyesRain falls
On you
On meI cannot control
Where I am
supposed to beBring the winds
That carry you
Bring them to meI will hold
This rebel light
This renegade seaRain falls
On you
On meYou cannot control
Where you
Are supposed to beI wait in the dark
I carry these chains
I roam through this nightNo Ill not open the door
For you to be free
For you to take flightRain falls
On you
On mewe cannot control
Where we
Are supposed to be
