Hurts to Be In Love

Gino Vannelli

More and more
Your kiss is like a half opened door
I can't get in
You stop me just before I begin
And it hurts to be in love
When you never get enough
Oh it hurts to be in loveThis endless urge
Keeps my body right on the verge
We touch and then
I wanna do it all over againAnd it hurts to be in love
When you only want me half as much
I tell you it hurts to be in loveI'm always worried you think I'm pushing too hard
Oh baby it hurts me when you tell me I'm going to far
