Yeneh Ababa (Rose)

Kenna

Take me for the rose I am
Lay yourself in my bed again
Showered and covered in petals of redAre you lonely?
Are you lonely?Blame me for the thorns, my friend
Does the pain outweigh the blessing?
Showered and covered in petals of redAre you lonely?
Are you lonely?Go slow
And I will cover you
Go slow
But you left me high and wild
You left me highGo slow
And I will cover you
Go slow
But you left me high and wild
You left me high and wild
See you left me highTake me for the rose I am
Lay yourself in my bed again
Showered and covered in petals of red
