

Resurrection

Sodom

[Dedicated To : Tom's Dad, who died too early]Your soul disappears in eyes of blue

With dignity and lonely lust

The moon is shining bright to you

Angels adore your mortal dustWelcome to the paradise

Great master's hands will rise

To bring you to the holy place

Eternal life for a human raceResurrection

Flesh to your bones

Everlasting fortune

You are bornResurrection

With flowers of gold

Give credence to heaven

Believe in godYour spirit was willing but your flesh was weak

Don't wanna leave the world of lies

They're standing around when you go to sleep

And give you no chance to say goodbyeWelcome to the paradise

Great master's hands will rise

To bring you to the holy place

Eternal life for a human raceResurrection

Flesh to your bones

Everlasting fortune

You are bornResurrection

With flowers of gold

Give credence to heaven

Believe in godResurrection

Flesh to your bones

Everlasting fortune

You are bornResurrection

With flowers of gold

Give credence to heaven

Believe in godResurrection

Flesh to your bones

Everlasting fortune

You are bornResurrection

With flowers of gold

Give credence to heaven

Believe in godNow you go through a time of revival

Wisdom from above

A kingdom where you find your idol

Worship, liberty and love Now you go through a time of revival

Wisdom from above

A kingdom where you find your idol

Worship, liberty and love Resurrection

Flesh to your bones

Everlasting fortune

You are born Resurrection

With flowers of gold

Give credence to heaven

Believe in god
