

Ghosts Will Haunt My Bones

Machine Head

Let me feel my palms around your throat
Let me see the pain of lost control
Let me hear your heart racing inside
Let me see the darkness that you fight
When the night crashes down See (No vision)
Can you believe? (Derision)
Will I fall? (Down so far)
Into the deep (It's so dark) Ghosts will haunt my bones
So just leave me alone Let me taste the salt within your tears
Let me swallow hope; it disappears
Let me steal the mind that makes you whole
Let me peel a layer from your soul When the night crashes down
(See) No vision
(Can you believe?) Derision
(Will I fall?) Down so far
(Into the deep) It's so dark Ghosts will haunt my bones When the night crashes down
(See) No vision
(Can you believe?) Derision
(Will I fall?) Down so far
(Into the deep) It's so dark Ghosts will haunt my bones
They won't leave me alone In darkest night I lay awakened with These thoughts of endless black that never quit
The tortured thoughts inside my head you see
They hide a mask of pain that's so ugly These ghosts come haunt my bones
They won't leave me alone From my throat the agonies emit
My demons wrestle and my thoughts conflict
The stench of bile, as I purge this hate
An inner struggle I can't separate These ghosts come haunt my bones
They won't leave me alone
Thunder cracks and dark furies sound
When the night crashes down These ghosts come haunt my bones
They won't leave me alone
Thunder cracks and dark furies sound
When the night crashes
When the night crashes down
When the night crashes down
