

The Last Revelation

Destroyer 666

It's not enough to listen
It's not enough to see
When the hurricane is comin'
It's not enough to fleeIt's not enough to be in love
We hide behind the word
It's not enough to be alive
When the future's deferredWhen your voice goes unheard
And your sons go on with song
And the one thing you loved the most
Now stands on the altarDrenched in blood.
