Come Holy Spirit

Soul Survivor

We wanna jump in the river, we wanna dance in the rain
Feel the heat of the fire, reigniting the flame
See the gates of heaven are opening wide once again
We welcome You

Come Holy Spirit, we give You the room
Come set our hearts on fire, completely for You
We're hungry for the power of Your presence
We're desperate for another move of Jesus

Every chain is breaking in the name of the Lord
We're crying out for healing, we believe there is more
See the waves of revival crash over and over again
We welcome You

Come Holy Spirit, we give You the room
Come set our hearts on fire, completely for You
We're hungry for the power of Your presence
We're desperate for another move of Jesus

Oh as Your love goes deeper let the flames rise higher
For a great awakening
Oh as Your love goes deeper let the flames rise higher
For a great awakening
