

Where's the Man

Scott Weiland

Where's your man?
He's lost and gone again
What is your name?
The name behind the shame Where's the cup?
It was filled, now broken up
Where's your man?
He's lost and gone again As I get behind the wheel again
Pray to live a million years
You know I lied, but if it makes you glad
I'll tell you what you want to hear
