Maybe This Time

The Derek Trucks Band

My mind is weary and I'm losing sight If loving you is worth the fight Sometimes I can see it But I don't want no one else, ooh A lesser woman would have been long gone You stuck around and showed me when I was wrong You said, "Hey, think about it, ain't no doubt about it That it's always darker just before the dawn" If you feel the same then don't walk away, yeah And we'll start again maybe this time The sun is rising and the air feels clear It's not quite right but you know we're getting near Keep on pushing me just might get it right Home, home, everybody makes mistakes sometimes Home, home, some people quit too soon Home, home, nobody else wants to work it out Home, home, I'm workin' out just to see you do If you feel the same we don't walk away, yeah It won't feel the same, same as it used to be If you feel the same then don't walk away, yeah And we'll start again maybe this time
