

Willful Suspension of Disbelief

Modest Mouse

Everywhere, everywhere, everywhere
Everywhere, everywhere, everywhere
Everywhere, everywhere, everywhere It's all so plain, it's all a plan
It's all so plain for everyone
The sky doesn't ever end
The air just gets much thinner further up You could keep diggin' down and down
A thousand graves down
Without turnin' around or finding hell
You find you're digging up again Everywhere
Willful suspension of disbelief Everywhere
Willful suspension of disbelief
