

Barricades In Time

Adema

Eyes are still red, coming apart
The lies won't take me far
Body aches, these hands shake
Dealing comes with scars
It's hard to sleep with all that's questioned Can I find peace of mind
Barricades in time
Can I find peace inside
And let love come save my life Tried to forget, feelings of death
Invading panic spawns, can't concentrate
No one relates, stealing all the light
Spreading thin the soul in sections Can I find peace of mind
Barricades in time
Can I find peace inside
And let love come save my life The enemy's my own thinking
I never let it show
The weight of me I am sinking
I fight this more than you know Can I find peace of mind
Barricades in time
(Can I find peace of mind)
Can I find peace inside
And let love come save my life
(Everything is fine) Can I find peace of mind
(Barricades in time)
If you ask, everything is fine
(Everything is fine)
Can I find peace inside
(Barricades in time) As I deal with my own strife
The enemy's my own thinking
I'll never let it show
The weight on me I am sinking
I fight this more than you know
