remember tomorrow

[re:jazz]

Unchain the colors before my eyes
Yesterdays sorrows are tomorrows white lies
We scan the horizon, the clouds take me higher
I shall return from out of the fire
Tears for remembrance, and tears for joy
Tears for somebody and this lonely boy
Out in the madness comes the all seeing eye
Magget flickers above us, to light up the sky
Unchain the colors before my eyes
Yesterdays sorrows are tomorrows white lies
Scan the horizon, the clouds take me higher
I shall return from out of the fire
Oh no
Oh remember tomorrow, yeah
