Tell Me (Acoustic)

Good Old War

There's a hole (hole) in this story (in the story)
There is something (something) that I haven't seen (that I haven't seen)
And for now, you want to keep it to yourselfBut if you're lonely (lonely)
Tell me (tell me), tell me (tell me)I know the way you look
You don't want to say what you're thinking
Your eyes, they start to roll when you're holding back
And I used to blame myself
but there must be other serious reasons
why the devil's in your voice when you start to laughThere's a hole (hole) in this story (in the story)
There is something (something) that I haven't seen (that I haven't seen)
And for now, you want to keep it to yourselfBut if you're lonely (lonely)
Tell me (tell me), tell me (tell me)I have tried and tried
I still cannot find any good sleep
Did you think that I would go on not noticing?
Your intentions are too sweet
but you don't want to listen to me
Would you rather us complete this misery?There's a hole (hole) in this story (in the story)
There is something (something) that I haven't seen (that I haven't seen)
And for now, you want to keep it to yourselfBut if you're lonely (lonely)
Tell me (tell me), tell me (tell me)
If you're lonely
Tell me, tell me

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/