Soon

Squirrel Nut Zippers

I was walking down the street
A stranger said to me, "Be careful what you do"
Then when waiting for a train
I heard a strange refrain, "I'd watch out if I were you"There's something going to happen soon
Some, some, somethings going to happen soonI have a phone that doesn't ring
A lie that doesn't sting, a letter never sent
I have a dream where snowflakes fall, inside a painted hall
That don't pay the rentBut if you draw a bone, draw the strongest, yes
And if you use an arrow, use the longest, oh, yesAlthough I don't move easily it has occurred to me
Since information's in the air
Are the heavens conspiring to show me this new thing
Or has it always been thereAlright
Hey
