Beautiful Weakness

Krystal Keith

The line of consequence isn't always straight
I cross it easily, I don't hesitate
Cause when it comes to you, I work without a net
I'm just falling into the regret(CHORUS)
Lovely contradiction is what I get when I give in
A masterful distraction, you become my favorite sin
And I don't want the strength it takes to turn and walk away
You leave me speechless, you are my weakness
My beautiful weaknessThe love worth fighting for is doomed in compromise
Some loves aren't meant to be even when they're right
Every single touch is like a lucky loaded gun
Guiltless danger I'm not running from(REPEAT CHORUS)Life isn't about the breaths you take
But the moments that take your breath away(REPEAT CHORUS)
