Brides Of Destruction

I see a mighty army no one can destroy
They'll leave a trail of victory 'til Judgement Day
Then there comes a warning calling soldiers to war
But half of them were sleeping, the other half ignore
    Why have we come here? What lies in store?
    Isn't this what we have all been waiting for?
    Stand and be counted, because one thing I know
We are all soldiers in the revolution of heart and mind and soul
    The end of all your worrying, we have all that we need
    So stifle all your fear and complacency
Yeah, we walk through the valley and we glow in the shadow of death
    We don't march alone, no, and life is too short to rest
    Why have we come here? What lies in store?
    Isn't this what we have all been waiting for?
    Stand and be counted, because one thing I know
We are all soldiers in the revolution of heart and mind and soul
    Oh, I am convinced that the consequence of your effort is eternity
And paradise remains for those who choose to claim this promise as reality
    Nor death, nor life
    Nor angels, nor principalities
Nothing present can separate us from His love
    Why have we come here? What lies in store?
    Isn't this what we have all been waiting for?
    Stand and be counted, because one thing I know
We are all soldiers in the revolution of heart and mind and soul
    Why have we come here?
    Stand and be counted
We are all soldiers in the revolution of heart and mind and soul
