In the Winter Time

Cameron Johnson

In the Winter Time

Look at me then look away if you have to
I can sense the sunset in your eyes

Blow the ashes from your mind
Push your fires to the side
You donâ€™t have to be alone
In the winter time

Letâ€™s make believe weâ€™re not pretending anymore
Lose a page from a script weâ€™ve learned in life

Blow the ashes from your mind
Push your fires to the side
You donâ€™t have to be alone
In the winter time

Look at me then look away if you have to

Weâ€™ll blow the ashes from our minds
Weâ€™ll push our fires to the side
We donâ€™t have to be alone
In the winter time
