

Some Kind Of Hate

Blood for Blood

White Trash Hardcore Rock n' Roll Fuck you!Hua, come on!

Here we go!There's no way out.I got some kind of hate,

I got some kind of hate, some hate

I got some kind of hate and I hate the whole human race.I got some kind of hate,

I got some kind of hate, some hate

I got some kind of hate and I hate the mother fucking human race.So let's go...Oh yeah!

Y'know I got some bad ideas burning deep in my black heart.

Well, evil is as evil's gonna do now

Y'know I try to do my part. .. HA HA!

And I'm a time bomb tickin'... BOOM!

I been tickin' to the sounds of the rock and roll... OH NO!

I think I'm gonna explode... OH NO!

I THINK I'M GONNA EXPLODE!You call me anti-social, well you're fucking right!

'Cause I hate this goddamned world and everything inside and every one inside.

You call me anti-social, well you're fucking right!

'Cause I hate this mother fucking world and every mother fucker in sight!I got some kind of hate for the human race.

I never found a place in the human race...

Maybe it's too late for the human race.

I never found a place in the human race...Sometimes I wish I could just turn my back and run.

Just turn my back and run away.

Sometimes I feel like I just gotta gotta get a gun and reach the top of the world my own way...
