

After the show

Rosaline Yuen

 Been on every stage in every place
 Been around the world and back again a million times
 But some things they never change
No matter what I do it's always you that's on my mindEven when I'm out of this game
 I'm always gonna be the same
 (Are you gonna change?)I gotta know if you're still gonna care for me
 After the show when I'm no longer on MTV
 I gotta know will you be there when the times get tough
 Are you still gonna give me love
 (Or are you gonna leave me in the cold after the show?)
After the show, yeah, yeah, yeahWhen I'm steppin' out of the spotlight
 And I'm on this stage for the last time, will you walk away
 Or will you be there, look me in the eyes
Then I'll know it was worth the sacrifice, yeahEven when I'm out of this game
 I'm always gonna be the same
 (Are you gonna change?)I gotta know if you're still gonna care for me
 After the show when I'm no longer on MTV
 I gotta know will you be there when the times get tough
 Are you still gonna give me love
 (Or are you gonna leave me in the cold after the show?)
After the showWill you give me love? Will you still care?
 (Are you gonna be the same?)
 When I step down, will you be there?
(Are you gonna go and change?)Will you give me love? Will you still care?
 (Even when I leave this game)
 When the lights out, will you be there?
(Are you gonna change?)I gotta know if you're still gonna care for me
 After the show when I'm no longer on MTV
 I gotta know will you be there when the times get tough
 Are you still gonna give me love
(Or are you gonna leave me in the cold?)I gotta know if you're still gonna care for me
 After the show when I'm no longer on MTV
 I gotta know will you be there when the times get tough
 Are you still gonna give me love
(Or are you gonna leave me in the cold after the show?)
 Don't leave meAfter, after the show
 After, after the show
 After, after the show
 After the show
