Water

Galantis

Snow fall on the tree tops, the streets are bare
Bright lights in the windows, and up the stairs
In all of your silence, and all of your songs
I still hear the choir, but you are goneCan't go back
Can't fight thisWater, water
Tear drops are falling like rain
Daughter, daughter
Still hear you calling my name
Oh, I see your light
In the water, for all my lifeI'm standing on my tip-toes, I'm coming undone
You were my hero, when I was young
We live but we never know, lost in the wind
A million candles, just flickeringCan't go back
Can't fight thisWater, water
Tear drops are falling like rain
Daughter, daughter
Still hear you calling my name
Oh, I see your light
In the water, for all my lifeLifted high
Let me lay down at your side
Here I stay
Till your soul comes back to mineWater, water
Tear drops are falling like rain
Daughter, daughter
Still hear you calling my name
Oh, I see your light
In the water, for all my life
