I'm Jonny Craig Bitch And I Drive In Reverse!

Jonny Craig

Oh, take all these pleasures away, for I've sinned
And oh, this is all my fault, I made no effort to speak your name
Tonight I'll place the blame on myself, hiding behind a crutch
Still can't make the nightmares fade, nightmares fade away
That touch, I can't escape
And eyes that drill my soul with meaning
Oh, I know I can't escape you

Now, take all these pleasures away, for I've sinned
Oh, this is all my fault, I made no effort to speak your name
Have I turned you to stone? Do we still exist out there?
A light we both know, a light we both share
That touch, I can't escape
And eyes that drill my soul with meaning
Oh, I know I can't escape you
