

Noises

Mike Mains & The Branches

Im sick and tired of hearing all these noises in my head
I cant seem to make them go awayIm losing faith in myself
Afraid to die and go to hell
Show me the place that I fell
DownThen you up and carry me home
Turn my heart of flesh into a heart of stone
Build enough to tear ourselves
And dance in circles singingIm sick and tired of hearing all these noises in my head
I cant seem to make them go away (my dear)
Sick and tired of hearing you say, Oh I love you, dear
When you going to get up and go away?Yeah, Im losing faith in myself
Take a shovel and dig a well
Make it well for making wishes
Ill wish a wish upon myselfLike a thief in the night
What was dead in me will fly
Out of this city, my home
So used to lyingSick and tired of hearing all these noises in my head
Yeah, I cant seem to make them go away (my dear)
Sick and tired of hearing you say, Oh I love you, dear
When you going to get up and go away?If you feel that you ever need
A place for your soul to breath
Then come up here with me
Well dance atop this burning heavenThey say youll never find
Truth within this life
But I say thats a lie
Cause I found it when I looked in your eyeYeah, I found it when I looked in your eyeSick and tired of hearing all these noises in my head
You know, I just cant seem to make them go away (my dear)
Sick and tired of hearing you say, Oh I love you, dear
When you going to get up and go away?Sick and tired of hearing all these noises in my head
Yeah I cant seem to make them go away (my dear)
Sick and tired of hearing you say, Oh I love you, dear
When you going to get up and go away?
