No Ordinary Blue

John Prine

One, two, one, two, threeLast night
Turned on the TV
Looked out the window
And then pulled down the shades
And I came to
The conclusion
My mind could not be madeShe said : Well what're you thinking?
I'm just a-wondering
Is it something that I did?"
I said: It's nothing
Just something
I picked up as a kid
I hear a loudly empty spaces
I see a big hole in the view
I feel an outline that traces
An imaginary path back to you
This ain't no ordinary blueLast night
For a split sec
I was a train-wreck
I was a complicated guy
I hope we don't find
This's the last time
We ever say goodbyeThe orange gleam
Is rising
On the horizon
Of the outskirts of my mind
I sat and listened
As it glistens
It says "Leave the past behind"
I hear a loudly empty spaces
I see a big hole in the view
I feel an outline that traces
An imaginary path back to you
This ain't no ordinary blueToo cold to hold
Too deep to swim to Too cold to hold
Too deep to swim toLast night
Turned on the TV
Looked out the window

And then pulled down the shades
