Rehab

Jameson Rodgers

I never would've kissed your lips,
if I knew it would come to this,
me going out with out my friends
hoping I see you on accident.
Told everyone I let you go,
they fell for it cause they don't know how many times that I drive down your road,
stare at those pictures that I said I threw out
a couple months ago.

Damn girl, I think I'm going crazy lately
in the brain, in the veins, anything that I can do.
I'm hooked, I'm shook up on what we have.
I need rehab, but there ain't no rehab for you.

I wake up with you all in my head,
can't even get out of bed
till I reach for my phone and check if you called,
but you didn't so I listen to that old voicemail you left.

Damn girl, I think I'm going crazy lately
in the brain, in the veins, anything that I can do.
I'm hooked, I'm shook up on what we have.
I need rehab, I need rehab
Chain me in cause I've been checking out our old spots
around this town.
I can't let you go, I can't quit you cold.

Damn girl, I think I'm going crazy, crazy

Damn girl, I think I'm going crazy lately
in the brain, in the veins, anything that I can do.
I'm hooked, I'm shook up on what we have.
I need rehab, but there ain't no rehab for you.
I need rehab, but there ain't no rehab for you.
