Rather Be Wrong Than Lonely

JT Hodges

I hear you're a little bit dangerous
The kinda girl a guy like me can't trust
They all say look but do not touch
Go on, call me crazy
Come on, come on, come on, come on babyI'd rather be wrong than lonely
I'd rather be by your side
I'd rather be wrong than lonely tonight
You may be a long shot baby
But I'm willin' to roll the dice
I'd rather be wrong than lonely tonightI've never been a cautious man
But this fire's gettin' outta hand
Mmmm I want you more than I can stand
Go on, drive me crazy
Come on, come on, come on, come on babyI'd rather be wrong than lonely
I'd rather be by your side
I'd rather be wrong than lonely tonightGo on, drive me crazy
Come on, come on, come on, come on babyI'd rather be wrong than lonely
I'd rather be by your side
I'd rather be wrong than lonely tonight
You may be a long shot baby
But I'm willin' to roll the dice
I'd rather be wrong than lonely tonightI'd rather be wrong than lonely
I'd rather be wrong than lonely
I'd rather be wrong than lonely tonight
