

Storybook Hero

Eric Bibb

If I could I would buy you a ring for your finger made of diamonds and gold, But I will give to you this guarantee, I'm gon' make you some money you can fold, make you some money you can fold Smooth talking play boys, they try get your number, but I wanna show you how good a man can be,
I long to deliver your every heart's desire, darling you're my destiny, darling you're my destiny One day I'll take you on a' ocean liner, wine and dine you in France, but right now I'm satisfied poor boys and beer,
'long as I can watch you dance, right here, Tipitina's, I love to watch you dance I wish that I could buy you a fine new home drive you round in a fancy car, but when you're tired, babe, I'll carry you up the road on my back, no distance would be too far, darling no distance would be too far 'Cause you make me feel like a storybook hero, Daniel's courage and Sampson's might Like a storybook hero, that's how I feel, when you hold me tight I'm your hero, like Robin Hood, Hercules, John Henry, like Tarzan, baby I'm you're man

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>