

Start Trying

Kolohe Kai

I had a, yeah
I had a, oh oh oh I had a really bad day
My girlfriend never said, "Hey,"
On the phone
I guess she thinks it's to make me feel alone
So that I'll want her more And I don't think that's nice
Mixin' the sugar with spice
On my heart
I hope you know that brightness don't mix with dark
And now my heart is sore, on the floor
Yeah
I'm tired of playing these games with you
The fire in my heart will die out soon
So please try to revive the fire
That's dying, dying. Start trying, trying
Yeah Why do you treat me like this?
When in my loving you'll miss?
All the time, I wish you'd see that I was and you were mine
You treat me like a fool
And I can't feel my feet
Sometimes I can't even breathe,
When you're gone
Why don't you tell me Is our love you on?
Girl, what you gonna do, baby boo?
Yeah
I'm tired of playing these games with you
The fire in my heart will die out soon
So please try to revive the fire
That's dying, dying. Start trying, trying
Yeah Oh, yeah
Oooh, oh oh
Yeah, alright, yeah Start try -y -y ing, try -y -y ing, trying Start try -y -y ing, try -y -y ing, trying
This is a two way road, yeah
Why don't you carry your load? I had a really bad day
My girlfriend never said, "Hey,"
On the phone
I guess she thinks it's to make me feel alone
So that I'll want her more And I don't think that's

No, no I don't think that's nice I'm tired of playing these games with you
(Yes, I'm tired of playing these games)
The fire in my heart will die out soon
(Oh oh oh oh)
So please try to revive the fire
(Oh please try)
That's dying, dying. Start trying, trying
(Start trying, trying, yeah)
Yeah I had a really bad day!
