Isabel's Song

Catherine MacLellan

You are a dream of love truly
You have my heart and my heart has me.
Darling I don't quite know where to start
I love you. You have my heart.

If I could give you just one thing
It would not be a diamond ring
It would not be something money could buy
I'll give you this heart of mine.

I don't know what I would do without you
My life has changed, it's true
There is no going back after you.
Love. Ohhhh, Love. Ohhhh, Love.

Ask what you like and I'll do what I can
I'll hold you tonight, won't let go of your hand
These hard years lie now in the past
For I see that our love will last

I don't know what I would do without you
My life has changed it's true
There is no going back after you
Love. Ohhhh, Love. Ohhh, Love.
