Jasmine

Ian Low

It has been way too long, since back when
Jasmine, I've been wrong
I've been wrong about nothing
You're still the same, I wish you changedIt's still your game, by your rules
And I will never learn nothing
And nothing ever changesYou're asking me to go to an ordinary
Satisfactory, almost paradise staying 'round you
Hanging 'round you Jasmine
With the sound of our straws
Sipping down, yoo hooYou tantalize, I fantasize
And in your eyes is the world
When all else fades into nothing
I'm the proof, you're beautifulWhen you're aloof, I get dumb
And I can't think about nothing else
And nothing ever changesYou're asking me to go to an ordinary
Satisfactory, almost Paradise staying 'round you
Hanging 'round you Jasmine
With the sound of our straws
Sipping down, yoo hooLove's a beehive of honey and stings
And I don't care if I never learn nothingStaying 'round you
Hanging 'round you Jasmine
With the sound of our straws
Sipping down, yoo hooAnd I don't want anyone else
To mesmerize me, Jasmine
