

Long Way from Home

Diffuser

This one is the one that I envy
Take a look in his eyes and
You'll see the seaWe were young, having fun
Till you broke down
Holding on by a thread dangling face downRun to leave
Run to leaveDo you know where to go
When you get there
Through the haze, you can see
Only cold staresTake all you can, wrong or right
Take all you can, roll the dice
Of your lifeRun to leave
Run to leaveDidn't say much
He took the wrong bus
Heading nowhere
Danny is a long way from homeHe don't care what they say
It doesn't matter anyway
Twenty years from today
Danny is a long way from homeCould've been so much more than they're asking
Living up to someone's expectationsDidn't say much
He took the wrong bus
Heading nowhere
Danny is a long way from homeDidn't say much
He took the wrong bus
Heading nowhere
Danny is a long way from homeHe don't care what they say
It doesn't matter anyway
Twenty years from today
Danny is a long way from home
Danny is a long way from homeDanny is a long way from home
Home, Danny is a long way from home
Home
