Spitting Venom

Hatebreed

Here lies another grudge, another score never settled
For many who lead a life of resentment filled with foolish pride, that blinds them
Fighting the world but their own progress gets fought
Feeble minds, spit their venom at me
Reliving their grievances day in, day out
Living with all the shame that their life has spit outAlone and provoked
Your anger is deep and lasting
Shamed and enraged
Filed with righteous indignationSo believe what you may Say what you will
I'll spit my venom in the eyes of your worldI'll spit my venom in the eyes of your worldAnonymity will not last
So mock and slander
With your empty threats
Identity unknown
Spineless coward, Soon to be revealed
Choose your conflicts
Try again and fail, Expression of fear
From the lies you live
You stand to lose now, you always will
I am undeterredSpitSpitting Venom
