Verse 1

This goes out to Jesus

Now the book of Matthew talks about the betrayal of the Lord
Who prayed for many hours until he was sweating blood
The disciples, when the scribes came
They were on the run
They didn't watch and pray, fear gripped them and so they were gone
Scribes came against Jesus with all sorts of weapons
Came with axes and bows,
They probably had guns
Jesus said to them
All the while I'd been in the temple
They didn't take him
Now they come against him like a thief but that didn't shake him
Took him all the way to Pontius Pilate
But that didn't break him
Now I know today and forever
I'm not forsaken

They kicked him

Wipe him

Stripe him

Beat him

Lash him

Thrash him

Spat on him

Laughed at him

Ask him to prophesy!

Uh!

Who spat on him

Imagine all the agony on/all the way to calvary
At the sixth hour his heart ruptured as they thrust him with a spear
The pain was too much to bare
At the end he said
Eli Eli lama sabach tani
Meaning my Lord my God why has thou forsaken me

To me you gave your kindness your goodness and everything
So what have I given back in return to the king
Let's go!

Verse2

I'm crazy when I do the dance for the king
Got my praise on
My spirit soul and body gon sing
Like a child on a swing
Yes I ride on his wings

Overwhelmed by the feeling as my eyes get a glimpse of his glory, holy, yeah I got a story, but first you gotta know know the wisdom of this world is folly

Interception; a misconception has been identified so we gotta break the deception

Clear the reception you gotta understand the reception I mean its all about the signal gotta check connection
The wedding reception, I'm talking bout Christ and the church in the court to reconcile the accused and the judge

Not guilty! free from curse of the law

I heard grace made bail he corrected my flaws power to the people can i hear a round of applause breaking the claws/clause

In other words this deal is off.

Operation terminated no longer validated elevated more like I graduated from that life of sin never thought I win never thought i win, glory to God let the praise begin

Let's go!

Chorus

Ahn ahn ahn ahn ahn....
