

Lost Souls

Jeezy

Yeah

Lord knows (Lord knows)

Lord knows

Yeah (Lord knows) let's goKnow a couple bitches made a career working the pole

Couple niggas made a career working the bowl

They say the game is just to be told and never sold

Bow our heads take a minute and pray for these lost soulsLord knows

Lord knows (Lord knows)

They got me prayin' for these lost souls

Lord knows (Lord knows)

Lord knows (Lord knows)

They got me prayin' for these lost soulsJamie, Rochelle and Sugar the baddest bitches I ever seen

I couldn't get enough of them bitches they was in every dream

Seen it with my own eyes know them bitches made a mill

One hundred black shirts I know them niggas spent a mill

Lil Oowee yeah I heard he just got 39

Even though the nigga young, still a whole lot of time

He used to run with D Boy, they messed around and cut his penis off

Gave that boy a big bag like he ain't seen the soft

Left and came back, silver Rarri, in a black range

Seen 'em at the Chevron on 10th street shit was strange

O don't bring his lil' brother in he gon' regret it

Picked up

Had been exactly how I said it (Lord knows)Know a couple bitches made a career working the pole

Couple niggas made a career working the bowl

They say the game is just to be told and never sold

Bow our heads take a minute and pray for these lost soulsLord knows

Lord knows (Lord knows)

They got me prayin' for these lost souls

Lord knows (Lord knows)

Lord knows (Lord knows)

They got me prayin' for these lost souls (Let's go)That nigga T White had that Phantom on the traffic

From white tee to white collar shit that nigga hell with them taxes

I'm screaming CPort free Screw what it do

Rasheena fine ass went to the feds that was my boo

Then what about Black dirty boy had that boy

And every time he in the strip club he bring them bitches joy

Chazo still dance, old ass still fine

I seen her throw a retirement party six times

Yeah this one for Nando God bless his soul
Know he at a strip club in heaven, dead don't ever close
Told me don't shine on them too hard 'cause Young you gone regret it
They start to feel they wanna key, it happened exactly how he said it (Lord knows)Know a couple bitches made a career working the pole
Couple niggas made a career working the bowl
They say the game is just to be told and never sold
Bow our heads take a minute and pray for these lost soulsLord knows
Lord knows (Lord knows)
They got me prayin' for these lost souls
Lord knows (Lord knows)
Lord knows (Lord knows)
They got me prayin' for these lost souls
