This is Now

MTV 2

Another memory and I'm asking myself
Why can't I let the past be the past
Once and for all take a hold of the future
And not let it control what I aspire to haveI see where my decisions have brought me
What's done is done and it's time to start again
Can't let it tear me in two or waste me away
I gotta believe'Cause this is now
How can I change tomorrow if I can't change today
This is now
If I control myself I control my destinyThis is now
How can I change tomorrow if I can't change today
This is now
If I control myself I control my destinyWhat I've seen and what I've been through has made me who I am
There was a time in my life where I had no desire to carry on
I couldn't see a place for me or a will to survive
I never thought to rely on myself or the beliefs that I have deniedBut this is now
How can I can change tomorrow if I can't change today
This is now
If I control myself I control my destinyThis is now
How can I can change tomorrow if I can't change today
This is now
If I control myself I control my destinyIf I control myself I control my tomorrow
I got to change today
'Cause this is now
Now, now'Cause this is now
How can I change tomorrow if I can't change today
I must control myself if I'm to control my destiny
'Cause this is nowThis is now
This is now
How can I change tomorrow if I can't change today
This is now
If I control myself I control my destiny'Cause this is now
How can I change tomorrow if I can't change today
This is now
If I control myself I control my destiny
