I Like It

The Everyday Losers

I Like It
I never thought I'd dream the day send way a piece of me I think I like it, I think I want it it's time to release this faster the pace to deliver myself to a sensitive place so get up and runaway, I'll meet you on apathy I'll give you a piece of me I know I fuckinâ€™ like it back up two are one itâ€™s hard at first to belong come take me and let it go again come break me and let it come again I'll break it down
