

Depending on the Night

Muscadine Bloodline

:Verse 1:

Sometimes she's getting all dolled up in her sequin dress and her high ass heels.
Sometimes she likes her muddy blue jeans on a riverbank with her rod and reel.
Sometimes she's in bed by 9 tucked tight with a book in her hand.
Sometimes she's a dance downtown until they kick her out at 3 a.m.

*Chorus*

Depending on the night
She's alright with just sitting at home
Depending on the night
She's halfway through a fifth of Patron
When she makes up her mind better hold on tight
You best be ready to go
Depending on the night
Depending on the night

:Verse 2:

Sometimes she's a County Road cruise control on her way to nowhere fast.
Sometimes she's a vinyl record spinning playing everything from Journey to Cash.
Sometimes she's a "need her space".
And sometimes she begs me to stay.

*Chorus*

Depending on the night
She's alright with just sitting at home
Depending on the night
She's halfway through a fifth of Patron
When she makes up her mind you better hold on tight
You best be ready to go
Depending on the night
Depending on the night

Oh you never know
No you never know
What you're gonna get with her.
Depending on the night.
Oh depending on the night.

*Chorus*

Depending on the night
She's alright with just sitting at home
Depending on the night
She's halfway through a fifth of Patron

When she makes up her mind you better hold on tight
You best be ready to go
Depending on the night
Depending on the night
