

Stigmatized

Pestilence

Open the book of life
To die a second death
Burn in the lake of fire
Next to the false prophet Face the thrones of judgment
Decide who lives who dies
Glorify the priests of unholiness
Bring forth your lies Die in your sin
Weakling
End in sight by
His might No power over the sacred ones
Kings of a thousand years
Heavenly fires waste those
Who failed to see or hear The words as old as time
Written and foretold
Marked will be their bodies
Their souls they have sold There's no
Mercy, save me
From this
Purgatory Open the book of life
To die a second death
Burn in the lake of fire
Next to the false prophet Face the thrones of judgment
Decide who lives who dies
Glorify the priests of unholiness
Bring forth your lies Die in your sin
Weakling
End in sight by
His might Stigmatized
