

Stigmatized

Pestilence

Open the book of life
To die a second death
Burn in the lake of fire

Next to the false prophetFace the thrones of judgment

Decide who lives who dies
Glorify the priests of unholiness
Bring forth your liesDie in your sin

Weakling

End in sight by

His mightNo power over the sacred ones

Kings of a thousand years

Heavenly fires waste those

Who failed to see or hearThe words as old as time

Written and foretold

Marked will be their bodies

Their souls they have soldThere's no

Mercy, save me

From this
