

Changing Me - Extended

Bobby Green

Black wires, I plug myself in everyday
Black cars, take me far but don't take me away
These walls, slowly driving me insane
Walked in, flashed your smile there goes my day
So bad, dangerous girl is safe to say You're still noticing
She don't notice me
Can't risk, I can't breath
Won't it taste so sweet
The change is changing me
The lighting strikes
I see your face
I lose my breath
I'm on my knees This weight is pulling down
She's moving even faster
I'm sinking futher now
Let go, so I can capture This weight is pulling down
She's moving even faster
I'm sinking futher now
Let go, so I can capture Will I, my troubles faded anyway
Big talk, never got a single thing to say
Tall glass, fill it up and drown away
So fine, a thousand words for every frame
So high, hard to get she doesn't play
You're still noticing
She don't notice me
Can't risk, I can't breath
Won't it taste so sweet
The chase is changing me
The lighting strikes
I see your face
I lose my breath
I'm on my knees
