Soul Coughing

RollOh, pride is not a sin
And that's why I have gone
On down to Wal-Mart with
My checkbook just to get you some [Incomprehensible]Like waves in which you drown me, shouting
Waves in which you drown me, shouting
Waves in which you drown me, shoutingLike waves in which you drown me, shouting
Waves in which you drown me, shouting
Waves in which you drown me, shoutingThen I know you must've realized by now
Then I know you must've realized by nowBy the lawn chairs there
Next to the racks of guns
Your self esteem is waiting
Canned up in aluminumLike waves in which you drown me, shouting
Waves in which you drown me, shouting
Waves in which you drown me, shoutingLike waves in which you drown me, shouting
Waves in which you drown me, shouting
Waves in which you drown me, shoutingThen I know you must've realized by now
Then I know you must've realized by nowLike waves in which you drown me, shouting
Waves in which you drown me, shouting
Waves in which you drown me, shoutingLike waves in which you drown me, shouting
Waves in which you drown me, shouting
Waves in which you drown me, shoutingLike waves in which you drown me, shouting
Waves in which you drown me, shouting
Waves in which you drown me, shoutingThen I know you must've realized by now
Then I know you must've realized by nowWaves in which you drown me, shouting
Waves in which you drown me, shouting
Waves in which you drown me, shoutingLike waves in which you drown me, shouting
Waves in which you drown me, shouting
Waves in which you drown me, shoutingLike waves in which you drown me, shouting
Waves in which you drown me, shouting
Waves in which you drown me, shoutingThen I know
I know
