Bad Guy

Islander

You always keep me guessing
Where you are and where you've been
You call this obsession
But I swear that I am innocentI wanna know if you're okay
I need to hear you say that you're alright, yeah
I wanna know if you're okay
I need to hear you say that you're alrightThis is something that I don't wanna say
But I'm gonna say it
You better believe it
This is just something that I don't wanna say
But I'm gonna saySee the way you've been living
I see the opportunities given
I know you wanna make your own decisions
You say you wanna be free
But keep telling me what I'm missing
But I'm telling you that it's you
It's always been youI wanna know if you're okay
I need to hear you say that you're alright, yeah
I wanna know if you're okay
I need to hear you say that you're alrightThis is something that I don't wanna say
But I'm gonna say it
You better believe it
This is just something that I don't wanna say
But I'm gonna say itYou always save me for a fool
And you always make me feel your suffering
You always take me for a fool, oh
And I'm starting to wonder why you're trying to be tough
'Cause the life that you're after, it'll never be enough
You don't know the melodies and no, no, not at allThis is something that I don't wanna say
But I'm gonna say it
You better believe it
This is just something that I don't wanna say
But I'm gonna say itTell me why, I always have to play
Why
Tell me why, I always have to play the bad guy
