Why Don't You

Ingram Hill

You could fall apart, it wouldnt take a lot
So fragile, your porcelain heart
You dont wanna be another casualty
Of loves war, so you wont even startI wont hurt you, I wontWhy dont you let me be the one to love you?
Why dont you help me find a way to?
Why dont you let me be the one to love you?
You dont have to be afraid when it's right
Why dont you?Youve heard, Ive been around but Im so different now
Believe me, let me show you how
'Cos I wont lead you on, youll be the only one
Its alright, that man is goneI wont hurt you, no, I wontWhy dont you let me be the one to love you?
Why dont you help me find a way to?
Why dont you let me be the one to love you?
You dont have to be afraid when it's right
Why dont you?Let me have the chance to make it alright
Follow what you feel and it will be fine
Baby, you should be mineWhy dont you let me be the one to love you?
Why dont you help me find a way to?
Why dont you let me be the one to love you?
Why dont you help me find a way to?Why dont you let me be the one to love you?
You dont have to be afraid when it's right
Why dont you let me be the one to love you?
Why dont you help me find a way to?Why dont you let me be the one to love you?
You dont have to be afraid when it's right
Why dont you let me be the one?
