HOAX

No, I don't have cable
But I'm willing and able
To watch what's on your mind
I find I waste my time the best
When I lose control of the remote
Staring steady at the channel
Giving up on intuition
I'm obsessed with television
It's true
They're here
You know they're coming, coming
When I disappear
You think I'm running, running
So let me be clear
You know I love it, love it
When you're online
