Habeeber

God Forbid

Habeeber comes across the seas
He searches now for you and me
His blood it boils for our way of life
He kisses his family and says goodbye
New faces, new lands, new chances, old plansPrepare now he takes from you habeeber
Ripping through your soul just like a knife
Hunting like a demon out for your life
Killing all that you care for
Crushing all that you have in storeLiving in a life that wants you not Surviving as your mind slowly rots
Living inside a burning spell
Haunted by habeeber's hell
Don't sleep on themAnger what feeds my brain
Pain pumps through my veins
Arrogance, consequence, discipline through death
Vengeance shall be ours even if I'm torn apart
