Not Letting Go

Bellefire

These city lanterns
Fade in around you
Baby tonight
I'm sailing around youAnd I, I never thought that you'd ever care
Drifting in circles, so unaware
Someone special was somewhere out thereCause just like the waves that crush before us
And keep coming back to shore
We'd fall, we keep hanging on, always keep coming back for more
So baby hold on, (hold on) on the rocks with the water getting deeper,
Getting stronger and I'm not letting goI'm at your side
Darkness surrounds you and all of my light
I was so glad I found youCause I'm sailing with someone
I'll never leaveCause just like the waves that crush before us
And keep coming back to shore
We'd fall, we keep hanging on, always keep coming back for more
So baby hold on, (hold on) on the rocks with the water getting deeper,
Getting stronger and I'm not letting goDon't let go
BabyCause just like the waves that crush before us
And keep coming back to shore
We'd fall, we keep hanging on, always keep coming back for more
So baby hold on, (hold on) on the rocks with the water getting deeper,
Getting stronger and I'm not letting go
