Watching Cartoons (Prod. Felly)

Jay Allen

Waking up like "Hello!"
Feeling so mellow
Fresh up out the shower
But there's nothing on my schedule
Mother f a what it do?
My sneeze be the swaggiest
Fits real clean
But my flows be the nastiest
That's why I'm working for it all
Other dudes can have it quick
Easy Come Easy Go
This be with that slacker shit
I spit like I had a list
Rap Game found ya shit
Life can be easy
If you know how to balance it
I started from the bottom and I'm still up in my room
Chilling' in my boxers
Sitting Watching Cartoons
Have a bowl of cereal
Call that shit the "Breakfast Club"
This thing had me bars
And I run it like a marathon
Long head carry on
Had it on a T-Shirt
Hipster Rap Chick
And the hips
And the knees hurt
Yeah you know I'm winning
This just the beginning
I ain't even started
Yeah wait til I start sprinting
Find me chilling with so niggas who be always down to ride
Showing up late man
I have the wrong time
Yeah you wanna see me work?
You can see me online

Got a stash full of tracks that-a should-a blow your mind

Watching Cartoons Up In My Room

Started from the bottom on that bullshit
When I told the brother
"Hundred Shows then we moving"
You the ones up on my feet
You know what the motion be
I tryna take the blow
But I'm starting small
Hopefully
Fuck if ya'll supporting me
This is passion
Fuck the game man
This ain't Madden
My haters mad and
I'm flyer than Aladdin
Bad Chicks Snatching
I'm sitting back laughing
Looking back at chances
Wishing that I had em'
Maybe I'd be happier
Maybe I'd be sadder
I really don't know
I'm going with the flow
I'm living for today
So Let's Go
