

My Love

Voodoo Monkey Child

My love, I long to be with you
Oh when will all our dreams come true

In passion we love the night away
Entangled in the grips that lead the way

I'd run over water to fall into your arms
I'd run over water to fall into your arms

In the end, what will be will be
Rise above, what we dare to see

Reaching for the most exciting moment
But too soon it will pass
It chokes and screams
In lovers dreams
And all too soon it seems to pass

I'd run over water to fall into your arms
I'd run over water to fall into your arms

In the end, what will be will be
Rise above, what we dare to see
Hear my cry in the slinet night
Don't say goodbye, don't give up your fight

Colors shine through a stained glass memory
You are My Love, you're everything to me
I see only you and as seasons change
I know that you will see... only me

I'd run over water to fall into your arms
I'd run over water to fall into your arms

In the end, what will be will be
Rise above, what we dare to see
Hear my cry in the slinet night
Don't say goodbye, don't give up your fight

Lyrics submitted by Tim Rogers.

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlyrics.com/>