What A Pity

The Spook School

My photo album goes well with the posters on your wall
Youâ€˜ve got a questionable wardrobe
But theyâ€˜re ....
And Some days I canâ€™t tell if you were not for me
Oh what a pity weâ€˜re such awful company
Cuz I find myself smiling when you say Iâ€™m on your team
Youâ€˜re not what I call graceful
But what does graceful even mean?
Weâ€˜re always getting definitions wrong
Itâ€™s such a pity that we never get along

I admit while you were sleeping I took money from your floor
In my defense I had a train to catch and I was poor
Youâ€˜re probably already well aware
I trust you when you tell me that you care
Itâ€™s just a pity that we never get along
Oh what a pity that we never get along
Oh what a pity that we Never get along

Oh what a pity that we Never get along

Oh what a pity that we Never get along

Oh what a pity that we Never get along

Oh what a pity that we Never get along

Oh what a pity that we Never get along

Oh what a pity that we Never get along

Oh what a pity that we Never get along

Oh what a pity that we Never get along

Oh what a pity that we Never get along
